

1
2 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
3 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

4 John Lanata, Jr.,

5 Plaintiff

6 v.

7 Equifax Information Service, LLC, et al.,

8 Defendants

Case No. 2:24-cv-00303-CDS-BNW

Ordering Plaintiff to Move for Default
Judgment or Show Cause, and Setting
Hearing

9
10 Plaintiff John Lanata, Jr. initiated this Fair Credit Reporting Act lawsuit against 11 defendants Equifax Information Services, LLC and Firstbank Mortgage Partners in February
12 2024. Compl., ECF No. 1. In March 2024, Lanata, Jr. amended his complaint to remove Firstbank
13 Mortgage Partners and add defendant Cenlar FSB. ECF No. 8. Lanata, Jr. served Cenlar with the 14 summons and complaint on March 18, 2024—making Cenlar’s answer due on April 8, 2024. ECF
15 No. No. 11. Three months later, Cenlar has neither filed an answer to the complaint nor 16 otherwise appeared; yet Lanata, Jr. has not moved for default Cenlar. Consequently, Lanata, Jr.
17 is ordered to move for default against Cenlar FSB or show cause why he is not doing so by 18 July 8, 2024.

19 Further, on April 14, 2024, I ordered Lanata, Jr. and defendant Equifax Information
20 Services to file a stipulated dismissal or a joint status report by June 12, 2024. ECF No. 15. To 21 date, neither has been filed. Accordingly, it is ordered that the parties must appear on June 25,
22 2024 at 10:00 a.m. in LV Courtroom 6B to provide a status update. The hearing will be vacated if 23 a dismissal document is filed by June 21, 2024.

24 Dated: June 17, 2024

25
26 Cristina D. Silva
United States District Judge